

Catherine Cheater Scheme of Work for French
Catherine Cheater Scheme of Work for Spanish

Important Copyright Notice

The Catherine Cheater® Schemes of Work, published by Golden Daffodils Ltd., are based on a variety of authentic French and Spanish resources, made up by European Schoolbooks Ltd (ESB) into 'Resource Packs' for sale to schools throughout the UK at much lower-than-normal prices.

The books and other materials included in these Packs are protected by copyright and carry copyright notices which, in normal circumstances, prevent copying or reproducing the text or the illustrations, digitally or any other way, without the express permission of the publishers.

At Catherine Cheater's request, ESB has agreed with the publishers to vary these copyright conditions to as follows:

- 1) Any school or Local Authority that has purchased one or more copies of both a Catherine Cheater Scheme of Work and the accompanying Resource Pack may without charge and without seeking further permission scan any page or pages of any book included in that Pack for presentation in the classroom on a computer screen, display monitor or whiteboard;
- 2) Any school or Local Authority that has purchased one or more copies of both a Catherine Cheater Scheme of Work and the accompanying Resource Pack may without charge and without seeking further permission make a sound recording of the text or any part of the text of any book included in that pack for presentation in the classroom through any appropriate sound reproduction device.

These permissions do not apply to individual titles. Furthermore they are given on the express conditions that:

- 3) No materials so reproduced may be passed on to any other person, school, local authority, or other institution whatsoever, whether for financial or commercial or other reward or compensation or none;
- 4) Materials reproduced in these ways may not be made available on any website, nor otherwise made available or accessible on the Internet.

In all circumstances other than those described here, permission to reproduce any text and/or illustrations from any book or other item comprising any part of the Catherine Cheater Scheme-of-Work in any form whether print or sound must be requested in writing from TLP or ESB beforehand.

Neither ESB nor Golden Daffodils can accept responsibility for any breach of copyright.
